Memorandum re John Ferguson Family

to "History of the Settlement of Upper Canada, with special reference to the Bay Quinte" by Wm. Canniff (1869), pp. 100-101:

"Among the early and influential settlers upon the bay, was John Ferguson. It has been our good fortune to come into possession of a good many public and private letters penned by his hand, and invaluable information has thus been obtained. The following letter will inform the reader of the part he took in the service during the war. It is addressed to Mr. Augustus Jones.

Kingston, 22nd July, 1792.

Dear Sir, --

Inclosed is my old application for the land on the carrying place, which I send agreeable to your desire. I need not attempt to explain it better, as you know so well what I want. I wish, if consistent, that land, 200 acres, Mrs. Ferguson is entitled to, might be joined to it. If I cannot get a grant of the carrying place, will you be so good as to let me know what terms it may be had on. I have it in my power to settle the place immediately, had I any security for it. I am certain Mr. Hamilton will interest himself for me, but I am loth to apply to him at present, as in all probability he has too much business to think of besides. Should it be asked how and where I served, I will mention the particulars. The 24th June, 1774, I was appointed, and acted as barrack-master until 24th March, 1778, when I was ordered to Carleton Island, being also commissary at the post. Thirteenth April, 1782, I was appointed barrack-master of Ontario, where I remained until ordered to Cataragui in September, 1783, and acted as barrack-master for both posts, until 24th June, 1785, when I was obliged to relinquish it, having more business in the commissary's department than I could well manage, with the other appointment, occasioned by the increase of loyalists settling in this neighborhood. Twenty-fifth February, 1778, my father then being commissary of Oswegotchie, delivered the stores to me, as he was unable to do the duty himself. He died 13th March, following, when I was appointed his successor.

The 13th April, I was ordered to Carleton Island to assist Mr. McLean in the transport business. In November, 1778, I was again sent to Oswegotchie, where I remained commissary of the post until 24th June, 1782, when I was sent to Ontario to take charge there, from thence I was sent to this place, 24th September, 1783, where I remained until a reformation took place in the commissary department, and I was on the 24th June, 1787, served like a great many others, sent about my business without any provision, after having spent my best days in His Majesty's service.

You see I was eleven years barrack-master, and nine years a commissary, I was also six years in the Commissary General's office at Montreal (a clerk) during which time my father was permitted to do my duty as barrack-master. I will write you again by next opportunity.

Your very humble servant,

(Signed) John Ferguson.

20 "The Parish Register of Kingston, Upper Canada, 1785-1811, edited with Notes and Introduction by A. H. Young (1921), pp. 56-57:

John Ferguson. In the "Kingston Gazette" of July 21, 1812, Mr. Ferguson and Alexander McDonell advertised for sale "that pleasantly situated and commodious house, near the town of Kingston, lately the property of Sir John Johnson." This may perhaps be taken to a certain extent as corroboration of Col. Clark's statement that Mr. Ferguson was a son-in-law of Sir William Johnson and Mrs. Molly Brant, though in another place he speaks of him in the same connection as "Farquharson." The third entry in Dr. Stuart's Register of Marriages is that of John Ferguson and Helen Johnson, in 1791.

Whatever may be the truth of the matter just mentioned, there is no doubt that Mr. Ferguson was a man of some importance in the community. According to Dr. Adam Shortt (Early Records of Ontario, p. 43) and the late Dr. W. Wilfred Campbell (A List of Members of the House of Assembly, p. 173), he represented Frontenac in the second Parliament of Upper Canada from 1800 to 1804, the records of the Quarter Sessions containing references to the assessment of the amount of his "wages" as member. Other activities are set out by Mr. W. S. Herrington, K.C., in Vol. IX of "Papers and Records of the Lennox and Addington Historical Society, p. 7.

Representations were made to the Executive Council at York by Mr. Ferguson and his fellow-commissioners of roads, on November 17, 1807, expressing their willingness "to relinquish their share of $1,000 because the bridge over the Nen (Rouge) is down" (U.C. State Book D, p. 76). These fellow-commissioners were Richard Cartwright, Hazelton Spencer, Alexander Fisher, John Cumming, Joseph Forsyth, and James Fulton.

On May 11, 1795, Mr. Ferguson was said to have been entered for lot 156 on the old plan of Newark (D.W. Smith Papers, Vol. B 5, p. 38). In 1797 he laid claim to certain lots in the Township of Sidney and "the lot next adjoining the North end of the Town of Kingston" (Ibid, Vol. B 10, p. 169).

According to the Council Minutes of April 16, 1793 (Q Series, Vol. 282, I, p. 295) he, like many other men, was in the colonizing business. On the date in question he, with Robert Kerr, William Johnson, James Vanhorne, and other Associated Loyalists, was granted "a Township to the Southward of the River Trent, and in the Rear of the Township of Murray or Cramahé."

3o "The Parish Register of Kingston, Upper Canada, 1785-1811, edited with Notes and Introduction by A. H. Young (1921), page 141:

Marriage of John Ferguson and Helena Johnson in 1791 (no precise date given).

4o The British Army List for the years 1777-1783 shows two John Fergusons with the 24th Regt. of Foot (America) (or 2nd Warwickshire) as follows:

1777-1783 (6 April, 1776) John Ferguson, Quartermaster
1777-1781 (14 July, 1777) John Ferguson, Lieutenant (Ensign 31st August 1774).

5o The obituary notice of John Ferguson published in the "Quebec Gazette", 3rd April 1778, reads as follows:

"On the 13th of February last died, after a tedious illness, Mr John Ferguson, assistant-commissary at Oswegatchie, leaving a wife and five children. He was a truly honest man, and much regretted by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance."

6o Haldimand B. 166, p. 120:

Return of distressed unincorporated Loyalists that are victualled by the bounty of Government in the Province of Quebec, agreeable to His Excellency the Commander in Chief's Orders 24th March 1783:

John Ferguson, married, with 1 boy under 6 and 1 above 6, 1 girl under 6 and 1 above 6. Number of rations per day: 2. Attached to the Loyal Rangers Corps, River du Chene.

70 The United Empire Loyalists Centennial book gives also a John Ferguson as quartermaster in Major Jessup's Corps of Loyal Rangers.

May it Please Your Honor

I am induced to trouble you in order to endeavour to remove your doubts respecting the family of my late Mother in Law, Mary Wrent, being ever considered as entitled to the rights & privileges of the Mohawks, as you was pleased to mention.

I asked Captain Brant if that was the case, his answer was that they were not entitled to any thing of the kind, nor were they ever considered as a part of them. and permit me to assure your Honor that I would not hurt their feelings so much as to mention it to them.

My Mother in Law has always paid taxes and has always been obliged to find a man to work on the Public Road, in like manner as other subjects; and had she been considered as a Mohawk, this could not have been demanded of her.

Mr Thompson assures me that he saw her name on the U.E. List. This circumstance I was not acquainted with when the Chief Justice put that question to me. I have not a doubt when your Honor considers that their Father was a General Officer of distinction in His Majesty's Service, Sir John Johnson's being of considerable rank, having raised & commanded two Battalions during the late war and their Brother Peter Johnson having been killed in action on Long Island, then a Lieutenant in the 26th Regiment, but your Honor will be pleased to put them on a footing with the son of the late Mr Robison, the wife & sisters of Mr Sheehan, the wife of Mr Dickson, who without half the pretensions, as well as many others, have received twelve hundred acres

McNabb.

Dr. James MacNab.

Among the historic names connected with the history of Upper Canada, that of Macnab is equal to any in prominence, and for conspicuous service to the Crown and the Province. As will be seen, not only Canada has been served by the Macnabs, but elsewhere the name has a place in the annals of the British realm. It is gratifying to record that one of the name was intimately associated with our Loyalist forefathers. Through the favour of the Rev. Dr. Macnab, the following interesting certificate is taken from the original:

"York, February 23rd, 1818.

"I do certify that I was acquainted with Doctor James Macnab when he acted as assistant-surgeon to the Loyalists during the first war with America; and that I attended him in his last illness, at Machiche, in Lower Canada, where he died about the beginning of the year 1780.

"Robert Kerr,
"Surgeon I. Department."

Many years after Surgeon James Macnab's death, in consideration of his distinguished services in the American revolutionary war, as the departmental records attest, his heirs received grants of land from the Crown. This gentleman was the earliest representative on Canadian soil of the ancient Clan Anaba or Macnab.

A branch of his family were Nova Scotians, who, for their high character while serving under the Marquis Cornwallis, obtained the grant of their property, the Macnab Island, in the harbour at Halifax. The last head of this family in Halifax was the Hon. James Macnab, Member of the Legislative Council and Receiver-General of Nova Scotia.

Another collateral branch was that represented in the person of Allan Macnab, lieutenant in the Queen's Rangers, who accompanied his commander, General John Graves Simcoe, to Upper Canada, in 1792, to assume the office of Lieut.-Governor. During the revolutionary war he received thirteen wounds. He became sergeant-at-arms to the House of Assembly of Upper Canada, and was the father of Colonel Sir Allan ~~Macnab~~ Napier Macnab, who was Premier of United Canada, Speaker of the Senate, and A.D.C. to Her Majesty the Queen, "whose history," as Rev. Dr. Scadding, in his "Toronto of Old," has said, "forms part of that of Upper Canada." Sir Allan was born at the historic Navy Hall, Niagara, Feb. 19, 1796, while his father was acting as A.D.C. to Governor Simcoe, and died at "Dundurn," Hamilton, August 8, 1862, aged 66. His daughters, Mrs. Daley and the Viscountess Bury, survive him, and now reside in England. The only surviving member of this family in Canada is Miss Hannah Macnab, of Hamilton, now far advanced in years. In the early days of Upper Canada she was the reigning belle of the capital. From a letter of hers just received, it is learned that her father died on the 6th June, 1830, aged 72 years, her brother, the late David Macnab, having succeeded his father in the position of sergeant-at-arms.

A distant relative of the subject of this sketch, and, in order of time, third representative of the clan in Canada, was Archibald--"The Macnab of Macnab"--himself the noble laird, of magnificent physique, who emigrated to Canada in 1821, whither many of his clan had gone before him.

After a residence at the Chats, on the Ottawa River, for nearly forty years, he returned to Europe, and died at Lannion, Cotes du Nord, France, August 12, 1860, aged 83, being the thirteenth and last of the gallant chiefs of the clan of which mention is first made in the annals during the reign of David I., in the beginning of the twelfth century. It may be regretted that the succession in this chieftainship has not been maintained, although it is now a landless, yet not an honourless, title, and the clan greatly scattered.

The only surviving daughter of the late chief, "Mrs. Macnab of Macnab," lives in Florence, Italy, where she is well known in social circles and much esteemed by all classes of people for her benevolence and good works.

Surgeon James Macnab had four sons, viz., Colin, Alexander, Simon and James, three of whom lived and died in Canada; the other, a native Canadian, was slain on the field of Waterloo. Colin, whose daughter was the wife of Col. Phillpotts, Royal Engineers, brother to the Lord Bishop of Exeter, and A.D.C. to Sir John Colborne, Lieutenant-Governor of Upper Canada, was connected with the commissariat at Niagara, and subsequently for many years held the collectorship of customs at that port. He died in 1810.

Simon was the first collector of customs, registrar, and commissioner of the "Court of Requests" at Belleville. In the war of 1812 he did duty at Kingston as Captain in command of a flank company of "Hastings Incorporated Militia," and at the time of his death, in 1821, held the rank of Lieutenant-Colonel, and was buried with military honours.

James was connected with the Commissariat Department at Belleville during the war of 1812, and for several years represented the County of Hastings in the House of Assembly, at York, where, while on duty, he died in 1820.

Alexander was sworn in as confidential clerk to the Executive Council of the Province in 1797, and entered upon his duties when Newark (Niagara-on-the-Lake) was yet the seat of Government. In 1800, he was gazetted an ensign in the Queen's Rangers; in 1803, he joined the 26th Foot; in 1804, he became lieutenant in the 30th Regiment, and in 1809 was promoted to a captaincy. He served through the Peninsular campaign, was on the staff at the battle of Waterloo as A.D.C. to General Sir Thomas Picton, both he and his chief being killed in action at Waterloo, on the 18th of June, 1815.

A grandson of Surgeon Macnab was Captain James Macnab, of Belleville, who was accidentally killed while on duty with the volunteers in the rebellion of 1837. A son of Captain Macnab is Alexander Macnab, C.E., London, Eng., who for many years has held responsible positions under several colonial governments.

The other grandson of Surgeon Macnab was the Rev. Alexander Macnab, D.D., Rector of Darlington for nearly forty years. Two of his most important positions in former years were that of president of the University of Victoria College, and acting chief superintendent of education for Canada West. The writer cannot forego stating that he has a most pleasing recollection of the Doctor's genial kindness to him when he first entered Victoria College as a student in 1848. Dr. Macnab was constituted honorary canon of the diocesan cathedral of St. Alban the Martyr, Toronto. He died, November 15, 1891, in his 80th year.

His eldest son, Allan Napier, lost his life by accidental drowning at Montreal in 1872. He was a graduate of Trinity College, Toronto, and curate of Christ's Church Cathedral, Hamilton.

The only surviving son of the Rector of Darlington is Rev. Alexander Wellesley Macnab, incumbent of St. Barnabas Church, St. Catharines, for fifteen years an able and successful parish priest.

Reaford & Sheriff

The plaintiff demands of the defendants the sum of one pound, one shilling currency for cheese sold them.

It appears to the Court that the plaintiff had authorized Mr. Farley to receive the said sum of one pound one shilling from the defendants, and the defendant Sheriff declares upon oath that Mr. Farley deducted that sum from wages due him.

Thomas Reaford, upon oath also declares that Mr. Farley acknowledged to him that he had received payment from Sheriff. The Court do therefore order that this cause be dismissed, and the plaintiff shall pay costs taxed at thirteen shillings and two pence currency.

The Bell and Laing School Papers.

Address

Mr. William Bell
at the Head of the Bay of Quinte.

Sir. I received your letter, respecting the Mohawk School. I can give you no positive answer at present; because I have agreed conditionally, with a Schoolmaster at Montreal. That is, if he comes up he is to have the School. But three or four weeks have elapsed since he promised to give me a positive answer. I expect daily to hear from him; altho I do not think it very likely that he will accept the Employment.

Some time ago Mr. Ferguson mentioned you to me as a Person who would probably undertake that charge. I told Cap't John that if the person from Montreal disappointed me, I would talk with you on the subject. Therefore if you come to Kingston about the time you mention I will be able to give you a positive answer.

The salary is 30 Sterling, with a house to live in and some other advantages which depend wholly on the pleasure of the Mohawks. But the teacher must be a man and not a woman however well qualified.

I am

Sir

Your very humble Serv't
John Stuart.

Kingston

Sep't 26, 1796.

Note:

Mr. John Ferguson was actively engaged in trade with the Indians of the bay district for a number of years throughout which time he was in partnership with Mr. Bell. He was Colonel of the Hastings Militia throughout the war of 1812. During that war he had charge of the Hastings soldiers on duty at Kingston. He should not be confused with Lieut. Ferguson, who with Capt. Singleton started the first store in Thurlow at Myers Creek. Col. Ferguson lived in Kingston and held his military position for many years after the peace was declared.

missary department, and I was on the 24th June, 1787, served like a great many others, sent about my business without any provision, after having spent my best days in his Majesty's service.

You see I was eleven years barrack-master, and nine years a commissary, I was also six years in the Commissary General's office at Montreal (a clerk) during which time my father was permitted to do my duty as barrack-master. I will write you again by next opportunity.

Your very humble servant,
(Signed) John Ferguson.

A letter written 11th November, 1790, by John Ferguson to Wm. Bell, of Sidney, says, "As I suppose Mr. Lounsbury's boat is idle, I would be glad that you would endeavour to borrow or hire it and Sherrard's son and come down to the third township. . . .

..... William Bell was on intimate terms with John Ferguson, and, we believe, related by marriage. It was at Ferguson's solicitation that Bell came up the Bay. We have before us an old account book, by which we learn that Ferguson and Bell commenced trading on the front of Sidney in the latter part of 1789. They remained here in business until 1792. Subsequently Bell became school teacher to the Mohawks, and seems to have done business there in the way of trading, in 1799. In 1803 we find him settled in Thurlow. Ferguson, who was living in Kingston, had been appointed Colonel of the Hastings Militia, and Bell was selected by him to assist in organizing the body. He was commissioned captain in December, 1798, . . .

Among the early and influential settlers upon the bay, was John Ferguson. It has been our good fortune to come into possession of a good many public and private letters penned by his hand, and invaluable information has thus been obtained. The following letter will inform the reader of the part he took in the service during the war. It is addressed to Mr. Augustus Jones.

Kingston, 22nd July, 1792.

Dear Sir,--

Inclosed is my old application for the land on the carrying place, which I send agreeable to your desire. I need not attempt to explain it better, as you know so well what I want. I wish, if consistent, that land, 200 acres, Mrs. Ferguson is entitled to, might be joined to it. If I cannot get a grant of the carrying place, will you be so good as to let me know what terms it may be had on. I have it in my power to settle the place immediately, had I any security for it. I am certain Mr. Hamilton will interest himself for me, but I am loth to apply to him at present, as in all probability he has too much business to think of besides. Should it be asked how and where I served, I will mention the particulars. The 24th June, 1774, I was appointed, and acted as barrackmaster until 24th March, 1778, when I was ordered to Carleton Island, being also commissary at the post. Thirteenth April, 1782, I was appointed barrack-master of Ontario, where I remained until ordered to Cataraqui in September, 1783, and acted as barrack-master for both posts, until 24th June, 1785, when I was obliged to relinquish it, having more business in the commissary's department than I could well manage, with the other appointment, occasioned by the increase of loyalists settling in the neighborhood. Twenty-fifth February, 1778, my father then being commissary of Oswegatchie, delivered the stores to me, as he was unable to do the duty himself. He died 13th March, following, when I was appointed his successor.

The 13th April, I was ordered to Carleton Island to assist Mr. McLean in the transport business. In November, 1778, I was again sent to Oswegatchie, where I remained commissary of the post until 24th June, 1782, when I was sent to Ontario, to take charge there, from thence I was sent to this place 24th September, 1783, where I remained until a reformation took place in the com-

MONTREAL, P.Q. (CANADA) September 14th, 1949

Dr. H.C. Burleigh,
BATH, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your request of July 25th, and my reply of the 27th following, may I bring to your notice that there is no trace of a burial certificate^x in Montreal, on March 13th 1778, neither of a birth of an Elizabeth Ferguson in 1762.

^xof John
Ferguson

On an other hand, we notice the recording - in one line - of an Elizabeth Ferguson, on January 8th 1769, and of an Ann Ferguson, July 25th 1778, no affiliation given in both cases.

On August 26th, 1809, died, aged 70, John Ferguson said " late Quartermaster of the Royal Rangers ", the recording being with the St. Gabriel Presbyterian Church.

The olograph Will of the said Ferguson probated September 11th following. The fee on a copy of that Will is $2.50.

On November 29th, 1799, a John Ferguson had a marriage contract with Jean Grant. Apparently he died on September 15th, 1810, aged 55. His Will was received by Notary Gray in 1810.

The fee for copies on act of Civil Status, is $1.00 per each copy, the half of it being applied for research fee.

Yours truly,

The Prothonotary

Records of Adolphustown Town Meetings.

Personal Notes.

Area Fergusson.

Area Fergusson whose name seldom appears, is said to have had a farm in Fredericksburg Additional, or the half of the very first lot in Adolphustown, first concession. He is said to have been a well educated and able man. It is supposed he drew up the deed for the first Methodist Church, which is certainly a very able bit of conveyancing, both as regards its composition and penmanship. Little else is known of him now. None of his name, or none connected with him, are known to reside in the township now.
